LEAVENWORTH, March, 2. FROM UTAH AND PIKE'S PEAK .-- The central overland express has arrived here, bringing dates from Camp Floyd to Feb. 8th, Salt Lake to the 10th, and Benver City te February 22d.

The health of the troops at Camp Floyd and Fort Bridger was good. The express brought three prssengers from Denver and $2.500 in gold dust .--No letters came by this arival. Business at Denver was improving, and many miners were leaving for the mountains. New diggings had been discovered in different sections, and parties had gone over to the Colorado, prospecting. A company was being organized to explore that river as far down as Fort Yuma.

Of Mazzini is told the romantic story ceived from the Eastern cities, a well selected that in early life he loved a beautiful stock of country woman, who was torn from him by the Church, and placed to wither in a convent. He then consecrated his life through her, and no other passion has supplanted that of his youth. He corresponds with her, still, as if they were youthful lovers.

The Portsmouth Republican says: "Many of the little ones of this city are being gathered to the arms of the great Shepherd, by that terrible disease, scarlatina.
